

2018 MEDIA KIT

ON TAP

ON TAP magazine has established a foot hold in the craft beer industry as a go-to guide for beer lovers.

ON TAP, South Africa's first dedicated beer publication is a quarterly magazine aimed at craft brewers, homebrewers, beer fanatics and those just beginning to dip their proverbial toe into the mash tun. Each issue will be filled with beer news from around the country and the continent, with snippets of relevant world beer news to make sure South African drinkers have their finger on the global beer pulse.

Although South African craft beer consumers are still testing the waters before they dive in, the industry has grown substantially in recent years. As ON TAP magazine, we are the direct link to the beer consumer, brewer and home brewer. Through our wide distribution channels, including direct to the breweries, Exclusive Books, Airport lounges, League of Beers and direct subscribers, ON TAP owns the beer space in South Africa.

The ON TAP brand is extended by:

- Our print and digital publications - published four times a year
- Our presence and involvement in beer and craft festivals country-wide
- Our social media presence - engaging with breweries and beer fans

There is simply no other media partner in the beer space that offers the direct to the beer consumer communication that ON TAP magazine does.

If you have a special project that you would like ON TAP's involvement in, don't hesitate to contact us today.
